Rabbi's Message

My wife, Robbie, and I extend to all of you a Shanah Tovah Umetukah, a good and sweet new year! You will find this issue of The Scribe filled with lots of information about the upcoming Days of Awe, Sukkot, and Shemini Atzeret/ Simchat Torah. Our Torah School will be starting as well, while some of our other programs are slated to begin in October after the festivals are completely over. In the midst of all these details, I wanted to give you an overview of my goals for the congregation this year. Most everything we are doing is connected to these goals. I would like to share with you my goals for my first year at Temple Beth Shalom and the theme with which I will organize many of my sermons, programs, and efforts in the coming year.

Theme for the Year

I learned from Rabbi Harold Schulweis the value of focusing the congregation on a theme for the year. The theme I have chosen for this year is “The Jewish Practice of Hospitality”. It would not be an exaggeration to argue that one of Judaism’s most important mitvot is ‘hachnasat orchirm - hospitality to guests’. But most of us were not taught this practice either in the home or in the synagogue. The practice of hospitality is one of my beloved mitzvot. It is at the core of my religious and ethical practice. I will be speaking on this theme during the holidays and will be teaching various aspects of hospitality practice to our children and to adults. My hope is at the end of the year, Temple Beth Shalom will be a more welcoming congregation, admired in the wider community for its ‘hachnasat orchchim.’ My efforts will be focused on three Goals:

1) Getting to Know each Member:

I hope to get to know the entire membership whether you have been a member for 40 years or you joined in the last few months. I would like to know about your Jewish journey and your interests. I would also like to hear your aspirations for our synagogue community and how we can make it better. I will pursue this goal in various ways: phoning, parlor meetings, Shabbat and festival gatherings, and home visits. Feel free to take the initiative by calling or e-mailing me. But at some point you will hear from me during the next 6-8 months.

2) Build Community by Enhancing Communication:

I have learned that one of the most important things that people in a community want is good communication. What is certainly true in healthy relationships applies to healthy and vital communities. I have already begun this effort by sending out weekly cyber epistle-Igeret min Hahof, distributing weekly bulletins (Hasofer Lashavua) at services and by e-mail, and making my Blog accessible: <http://rabbidovblog.blogspot.com/>. These are only the first steps in a comprehensive effort to make our congregation more transparent, more user-friendly, and more accessible for every type of learner and seeker. Members are already stepping forward to edit the Scribe, to revamp our website, and to help us improve our marketing. Please be patient as we make these improvements. Please let the office know if you do not have e-mail or a computer so we can get things to you by mail.

3) A More Participatory Religious Life:

I am first and foremost a teaching rabbi. Rabbis are not meant to be priests. I will try to avoid being your surrogate authentic Jew. Religious life becomes dull when others do it for us. It becomes vital and interesting when we have a real stake in it and find a meaningful way to participate. I try very hard to provide opportunities for meaningful involvement in services, study, and tikun olam at the synagogue. I might recruit you to learn Hebrew, read Torah, lead a service, welcome worshippers, give a Devar Torah, teach a class, blow a shofar, lead a seder, educate children, make a minyan, lead a march, or organize a rally, or lead a mission to Israel. Or you might have an idea to do one of these things or something else. Then I will help you realize your aspiration. Judaism is a very democratic religion based on the idea that everyone can participate and contribute to the spiritual, ethical, and social life of the community. I will bring that type of Judaism to our community in everything I do.

I look forward to sharing with you the awesome and joyful rhythms of this holy time of year. Please feel free to respond to this writing or any other writing at rabbi@tbslb.org.

Kol Tuv,

Rabbi Dov Gartenberg

President's Message – "Building for the Future"

We are building for the future at Temple Beth Shalom, and that sounds great! It is reality; we are moving forward on all cylinders – from our new Rabbi, Rabbi Gartenberg, to our new Board of Directors, new member families joining our Congregation, goals being identified, members getting involved and offering help and many more great things that are happening. It is an exciting time! I can feel it in the air – I hope you can feel it as well and I pray and hope that it is contagious.

We do have goals for the temple and as I mentioned in last month's scribe article that I would share them with our members during the next several months. One of our goals is to introduce and integrate Rabbi Gartenberg to our temple and to the community. Our Rabbi is doing excellent! He is meeting people – members and non members – doing an excellent job in communicating, be it through e-mails, other correspondence, or one-on-one chats. He is a good listener and I encourage all members to stop by the Temple to meet him and/or attend Shabbat Services. I can assure you that he will be providing us an exciting, spiritual, relevant, and religious experience. You should be looking forward to attending our High Holiday Services.

The Board of Directors has approved the Sanctuary Renovation Project and the project is scheduled to start October 8th, and will hopefully be completed by the end of December. Bruce Greenberg and his committee have done an excellent job. The project will include new seats, new carpet, making the Bimah accessible to all, painting and more. I want to thank those members who have already made contributions to this important project and encourage all members to make a contribution. All dollar amounts small and large are welcomed and appreciated. This is an exciting project!

The Rabbi and our board members are busy in developing youth programs, kids programs, and other exciting and enjoyable programs that I know our children will really enjoy.

Several new families have joined the temple and we have received many telephone calls of interest. If you know anybody who has an interest in joining our Temple, please call the office with the information and we will be happy to follow up. You are our best advertising and public relations company.

The High Holidays are right around the corner and I look forward to welcoming and greeting you at our services.

Exciting Times and Building for the Future!

Best Wishes,

Jerry Kaufman

The Feast Before the Fast: Se'udat Hamafseket

Followed by a "Teshuvah Walk" to the Synagogue

Friday Afternoon, September 20, 2007 at 3:00-5:00pm

At the home of Parviz Parhami and Karen Weinstein in Bixby Knolls

The Talmud describes the feast of Erev Yom Kippur as one of the most important family gatherings of the year. It later became known as the 'Se'udat Hamafseket-the Interrupting Feast'. Rabbi Gartenberg teamed up last year with renowned Seattle Jewish chef, Emily Moore, to put together a Seder and prepare symbolic foods that would add spirituality to the last meal we eat before the great fast. We are inaugurating the first Temple Beth Shalom Se'udat Hamafseket at the Parhami/Weinstein home in Bixby Knolls near the synagogue. The Seder will be led by Rabbi Gartenberg. After the meal we will do a 'Teshuvah Walk' to the synagogue, a chance to have a heart to heart talk with a loved one prior to the onset of Yom Kippur.

RSVP Information: There is no charge for the meal, but space is very limited. Reserve early!! The firm RSVP deadline is Monday, September 10th. To make a reservation, please send an e-mail to the office at office@tbslb.org with 'Feast before the Fast' in the subject line, or call the office at (562) 426-6413. You will receive an email or call confirming your place, along with more information about the meal.

A brief and beautiful Selichot service will follow, led by Cantor Gelman.

7:40-9:30 Film and Discussion, Social Hall

For the first time, Temple Beth Shalom will be holding a Tashlich-Rosh Hashanah Casting Ceremony at the beach at the conclusion of the first day. We will use this beautiful setting to symbolically cast away our sins with pieces of bread, sing songs from the holiday, and watch the sunset of the first day of the Jewish New Year. Join Rabbi Gartenberg for a beautiful, kid-friendly service. Please bring your own bread.

*Time previously announced was 7:00pm. We moved it up to do Tashlich before the onset of the 2nd day of Rosh Hashanah.

The Open Synagogue: An Alternative High Holiday Experience

Thursday, September 13, 2007, First Day Rosh Hashanah. 3:00-5:00pm

Saturday, September 21, 2007, Yom Kippur Afternoon, 3:00-4:45pm

Open to the Public

Please RSVP by sending your name, address, phone number, and e-mail to rabbi@tbslb.org or call the Temple office at (562)426-6413.

Many people struggle with the High Holiday services, becoming frustrated with prayers they don't understand or relate to. The Open Synagogue is an alternative High Holiday experience that shifts the emphasis to exploring the great spiritual themes of these holy days through interactive study and dialogue. This special program is open to the public and no tickets are necessary. Please note that The Open Synagogue is not a service with the traditional prayers and the opportunity to say Kaddish. We encourage those in the general public seeking such services to obtain seats through the synagogue office.

The two sessions of the Open Synagogue, led by Rabbi Gartenberg, will focus on the most important action item of these days: repairing our relationships with those we have wronged during the past year-Teshuvah. Our task will be to learn Jewish and contemporary teachings and ways of applying the mitzvah (commandment) of Teshuvah. Each participant will be asked to seek out 1-3 persons in his/her life to repair a breach and to overcome a grudge. We will learn how Judaism has taught people to repair and restore relationships. When we gather again on Yom Kippur we will discuss what happened when we approached people and Rabbi Gartenberg will share real stories on Teshuvah successes and failures.

New York City Adventure Introduction and Planning Meeting

Tuesday, September 25 at 7:30-9:00pm
in the Temple Beit Midrash

Rabbi Gartenberg and the Temple Beth Shalom Youth Department invite interested kids and parents to attend a planning meeting for a special youth program which will start in early October and will culminate in a long weekend spring trip to New York City. In New York, we will see some of the great sites and experience the rich Jewish life in Manhattan and its surroundings.

The focus of the meeting is to set a time for weekly study and organizing sessions and to agree on a date for a trip in the Spring. The trip will be organized by the students, with the help of the Rabbi, parents, and volunteers. The study will focus on the American Jewish experience, the colorful personalities of Jewish New York, and the cultural contributions of great Jewish artists, writers, activists, Rabbis, and movers and shakers to the cultural capital of the United States. Part of the practical experience will focus on team building, organizing, raising funds, itinerary planning, and sharing our experience with the congregation and the community.

Please bring calendars. RSVP to the Temple office at (562)426-6413 or e-mail the Rabbi at rabbi@tbslb.org.

Candle Lighting

Friday, September 7	6:53pm
Wednesday, September 12	6:46pm
Friday, September 14	6:44pm
Friday, September 21	6:34pm
Wednesday, September 26	6:27pm
Friday, September 28	6:24pm

Lighting the Candles
 for Shabbat:

First light the candles. Then spread your hands out around the candles drawing your hands inward in a circular motion three times to indicate the acceptance of the sanctity of Shabbat.

You then cover your eyes and recite the following blessing:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי
 אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם
 אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו
 וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל שַׁבָּת.

Baruch ata Adonoy
 Eloheinu melech ha-olam
 asher kid'shanu be'mitzvo'sav
 ve-tzivanu lehadlik ner shel Shabbos.

Blessed are You, G-d, King of the Universe, Who made us holy with His commandments and commanded us to kindle the Shabbat light.

Uncover your eyes and behold the Shabbat lights.

The time of lighting is considered especially propitious for praying to G-d for health and happiness. The prayer is readily acceptable because it is offered during the performance of this great mitzvah of lighting Shabbat candles.

Make sure to light the candles before sunset.

Properties Update...

Brett Wiese has completed his Bar Mitzvah project to beautify and maintain portions of our South patio area. The stairs, landings and vertical supports metal railings were sanded and prepared, coats of primer paint and final paint applied. This not only revitalizes the appearance of the very faded and rusty railings, but also serves to protect them into the future. Flowering plants were added to the South patio landscape planters.

Joseph Roth has completed his Eagle Scout project to improve the East lawn area. New irrigation sprinkler heads were installed and fine tuned, and an electric automatic timer was installed, to keep our main entry large lawn area greener with consistent watering daily during dry seasons. This required extensive digging for new timer wire conduit, and new flush installed irrigation valve and valve box with cover.

Max Kahn has started his Eagle Scout project at the North patio area. Work includes block wall patching and painting, new planter irrigation and automatic timer, adding shrubs to fill in gaps, other plants, and star jasmine ground cover to provide greenery, flowers, and a nice scent. Seating will be installed at this private area to enjoy conversations or time alone in peace. If this project is not already complete by the time of publication, a tentative work day is September 9 from 9am-3pm. If you are interested in helping with donations or labor, please contact Max Kahn.

Thank you to each of you for your hard work and organization skills, and to all the volunteers and donors that supported these projects.

Let's keep the momentum going! If you or someone you know is interested in starting or helping with a building or grounds project, let us now as we are ready to start.

A Special Thank You

Thank you so much for all our friends and to our Temple family for making donations in honor of my speedy recovery. I wish that I could thank each and every one of you, but there are too many. Thank you and G-d bless all of you.

Sisterhood Message

L'Shana Tova to everyone! As we begin the New Year of 5768, we dedicate time to reflect on the past year and look ahead to the upcoming months. The New Year means different things to each of us – the ways we recognize and honor the High Holidays and the traditions we share with our family and friends. This year is so exciting with Rabbi Gartenberg at the helm, infusing our decades of Temple Beth Shalom traditions with his wealth of wisdom and global experiences.

A special thank you to everyone who ordered honey for the holidays – we received orders for 121 bottles of honey from over 20 members of our synagogue, and raised nearly $500 for Sisterhood. This fundraising effort helps Sisterhood to provide the weekly Oneg and Kiddush Luncheons, provide monthly programs, as well as make our donations to the Shul. Honey recipients will receive their New Year gifts in early September direct from the manufacturing farm in Kentucky. May our gifts of honey carry blessings of joy and sweetness to the people we love.

As for the start of our new Sisterhood year together, we enjoyed a wonderful Membership Brunch together. We owe a HUGE thank you to Barbara Ravid and Nora Levy for coordinating such a beautiful event. Thank you also to the Kizner Family for opening their home to Sisterhood. The annual Membership Brunch is always such a wonderful way to start the Sisterhood year off together, focusing on the bonds that bring and keep us together.

We hope that you will join us on September 28th for our annual Sukkot dinner. If you haven't responded yet, please call the Temple office as soon as possible to reserve your seat. In addition to the Sukkot dinner, please mark your calendars for these upcoming dates:

- ☆ October 14 – Program (to be announced) and General Meeting (If you are interested in working on a small committee to plan the program, please give me a call! Without a programming vice-president this year, we're looking to the Sisterhood membership to take turns identifying and coordinating programs.)
- ☆ October 17 – Pan Tournament
- ☆ November 4 – Torah Fund Program
- ☆ December 7 – Hannukah Dinner

As always, if you have any questions or comments, I can be reached at (562) 421-2063 or via e-mail at judithrcarey@verizon.net.

L'Shana Tova – peace, happiness, and joy to you and your loved ones in 5768.

Judy Carey, Sisterhood President

Torah School Tidbits

Shana Tovah! With the arrival of the New Year it is appropriate that our students jump right in with learning about the Days of Awe! It is also a time for reflection and new beginnings. Speaking of beginnings, I am pleased to announce the formation of a Community Torah School Fund! Many people have generously asked how they can help with the Torah school even if their children are grown or have graduated. The answer is, of course, to invest in the future of the school so it can continue to fulfill its mission of providing a quality Jewish education for the youth of our community.

The tuition we charge our families does not cover the cost of running the school. Members can help by sponsoring a student in the form of a gift to the Community Torah School fund. Our goal is to grow our school so that our costs are met. We would like to get to the point of being able to sponsor students to visit Israel. In the short term, your gifts will ensure that no child who wishes to learn is turned away because of lack of funds.

Need a Mitzvah?

If you have ideas for our students or need help that our 6th and 7th graders can perform, please call the office and leave a message for Karen or John. Our students need community service hours, and what better way than partnering with our own friends and families.

The 1st day of Torah School is Sunday, September 9th at 9:00 am!

Here is to a Sweet and Happy New Year!

B'Shalom,

John Williams

Vice-President of Education

Temple Newsmakers

Congratulations to Elysa Greenberger, Granddaughter of Joe & Bess Cirel on her acceptance to Vassar College in New York.

Construction Update

Please pardon our dust.....

The Temple Sanctuary Refurbishment Project will begin construction on October 8th, at which time we will no longer be able to hold services in the Sanctuary. Alternative locations on the premises, including the Social Hall and Small Sanctuary, will be used until our newly refurbished Sanctuary is ready to be re-occupied.

The Temple is still looking for your financial help to complete our Refurbishment! All donations are welcome, with a special bronze plaque honoring those who contribute the following amounts:

- $5,000+ Benefactors
- $4,999 - $2,500 Guardians
- $2,499 - $1,000 Sponsors

Please contact Bruce Greenberg, Refurbishment Project chairperson at (562) 437-2000 for further information, or to make your donation to help our dream become a reality!

Bikur Holim – Visiting the Sick

Please contact the Temple office promptly whenever you hear of an illness or hospitalization of one of our synagogue members or a member of his/her family. We rely upon you to bring this to our attention so that the Rabbi may make appropriate contact and visit.

Yahrzeits for the Month of Elul 18, 5767 – Tishrei 18, 5768

Please note: The observance of Yahrzeit is determined by the Hebrew date, and thus shifts around on the English calendar from year to year.

* Denotes a memorial plaque will be lit

Temple Communication: E-mail, Post Office Mail

Temple Beth Shalom is continuing to modernize its communications to include enhanced use of websites and e-mailing. We are aware that some members do not use computers or are 'computer challenged'. We are sensitive to the needs of our members who cannot currently use these technologies. We would like to help in 3 ways:

1. If you do not have e-mail or internet access, please call the Temple Office, so you can be put on the 'snail mail' (regular post-office mail) list in the office. We will send hard copies of important weekly emails, announcements, and notices to people on this list. While people on the 'snail mail' list will not enjoy the instantaneous delivery of information, we will try hard to keep you in the loop.
2. In the case of major news, such as a death or an emergency, we will set up a phone tree for those on the snail mail list. Please call the Temple Office to be put on the 'snail mail' list so you can readily be contacted.
3. Rabbi Gartenberg and a computer savvy member volunteer will offer a workshop on using the public library to access the internet and to receive and send e-mails, along with some easy to learn computer skills. If you would like to come to a future workshop, call the Temple office at (562) 426-6413 and you will be contacted about it.
